One day I went to a house and I stepped on a carpet and it flew out the door. I was strapped to the carpet. The carpet spoke to me and said "would you like to go for a ride to Myrtle beach?" I said "Sure but I've got to be back in 4 hours for supper I don't want to be late!" The carpet said "hang on tight, and off we went." We flew high up in the air and I saw amazing things. We stopped at a few stores along the way. I said "wow what a great sight!" The carpet said "do you like stories?" I said "yes, I love them!" He said "let me tell you one you'll love it!" Once I was flying with my mom and dad to Kentucky. guess what I hit a tree I was covered in leaves. Mom help dad get me out. We continued our journey to Kentucky. We went to see my Aunt's baby boy, she has 10 children including the baby which was 5 weeks old. Then, we left and went back home to take a shower. Oops! we only have 3 more hours said "the carpet". Magic carpet will you please turn around and show me your house? Sure, and off we went. When we arrived I hopped off and went to knock and guess who came to the door? A 11 month old baby sister! Carpet look! look! it's you little sister. Sissy! bubby! Oh, I missed you so much. Mom! dad! Son who is that? my friend... Oh, your friend. Carpet how many more minutes do we got? Not long... Come on let's take you home.

Score Point: 4

This response reflects proficiency in narrative writing skills. The response is organized sequentially and displays adequate facility in the use of language and dialogue. Writing errors do not interfere with meaning. Although there is some illustration of key ideas (I was strapped to the carpet, I was covered in leaves, and when we arrived, I hopped off), further development would be required for a higher score.
